Freshmen

Can you remember ?
 How big everything looked?
 Buying tickets to the pool on the 3rd floor ?
 Forgetting where your locker was — and then forgetting the combination once you found it ?
 The hopeless feeling that you'd be a freshman for the rest of your life ?
 Wandering into the Calculus classroom by mistake ?
 The occasional upperclassman who gave you the right directions to the gym ?
 Starving in study hall during the 6th period ?
 How everyone knew you were a freshman, even though the sophomores wore gray blazers, too?
 Guess what: You'll never forget. You will soon find that you don't even want to. Four years of high school can go awfully fast — and now you have only 3 years left!

We've only just begun

Sophomores

*Looking back, the things I see
Are magnified by memory
In a magic sort of shimm'ry way
It seems like only yesterday .*

... that we spent what seemed like eons making paper flowers, and then pulling them apart — after we'd won the spirit trophy!
... that we were limping around, telling everybody that we were the school Powder Puff Football champs
... that all of us were excited about the snow and ice, gowns and slow dancing, and the world's best Cotillion
... that we were wondering if we'd look the same in maroon blazers or if we'd start looking like "those juniors."
... that we were hoping that our remaining years in high school would turn out to be just half as full of great times and wonderful memories as was our sophomore year .

*"Faded photographs
Covered now with lines and creases,
Tickets torn in half,
Memories in bits and pieces
Do you Remember
Our brand new clean maroon blazers?
How "easy" the P.S.A.T.'s were this year?
Building a six foot tall horse . . .
and winning the Spirit Stick — again?
Turning, and turning, and turning the Class rings?
The "easier" S.A.T.'s?

Jane Absetz

We've walked and laughed
We've walked many miles
And now our time has come to smile
At those things which made us happy to be together

We began each as one
Alone in worlds all our own
Speaking mere silence in cold dark hallways

But soon the cold grew warmer
And the light from our faces shone within the dark
It was music, it was laughter
and these words--
til we meet again

We've fought and cried
We've learned many things
And now the past lies free for us to choose a way to leave without sadness

We've taken and shared
We've given many things to each our friends in life
We've smiled at those things which have made us happy to be together

And the life from each our faces shone within the dark
It was music, it was laughter,
and these words--
til we meet again
